
ENT Doctor

Posted by ReidsMom - 2008/04/28 09:24

My son is 4 years old has had alot of year infections. Can someone recommend a good ENT doctor in the Birmingham area?

=====

Re:ENT Doctor

Posted by bkfree - 2008/04/28 10:46

We used Dr. Jebeles at St.Vincents East. He was wonderful, put tubes in my son's ears several years ago and my son has never had a single ear infection since.

=====

Re:ENT Doctor

Posted by tracyluker@bellsouth.net - 2008/05/03 10:59

I work at Children's and we have four primary ENT's there and they are all excellent. Dr. Wiatrak did my niece's T&A, Dr. Woolley and Dr. Hill are also great! I'm not as familiar with Dr. Shirley, but I don't know anything negative about him.

Here's a link to all of them:

<http://www.chsys.org/default.aspx?id=175>

Many of Children's docs travel all over the state to provide services at different clinics. Not sure where you are or if any of the ENT docs travel, but before you drive to B'ham you may want to ask if any of them come to your area.

=====